

MAYOR LERNER APPOINTED TO NATIONAL MUNICIPAL COMMITTEE

National League of Cities President James Mitchell, Jr., has announced the appointment of Pinecrest Mayor Cindy Lerner to the National League of Cities' (NLC) 2011 Energy, Environment and Natural Resources Policy and Advocacy Steering Committee. This Committee has the lead responsibility for developing NLC federal policy positions in the areas of energy, clean air, solid and hazardous waste, water quality and supply, national wetlands, and endangered species.

As a member of the committee, Mayor Lerner will play a key role in shaping NLC's policy positions, while advocating on behalf of America's cities and towns on Capitol Hill, with the Administration, and at home.

For more information on NLC's other committees and councils, visit http://www.nlc.org/inside\_nlc/committeescouncils.aspx.

The National League of Cities is the nation's oldest and largest organization devoted to strengthening and promoting cities as centers of opportunity, leadership and governance. NLC is a resource and advocate for 19,000 cities, towns and villages, representing more than 218 million Americans.
