The Miami-Dade County League of Cities Holds its First Annual “Best Practices” Conference!

-Sessions will discuss strategies for improving municipal services-

Miami, FL – Responding to the high demand for a sound and more efficient municipal governance across the county, the Miami-Dade County League of Cities and its President Juan Carlos Bermudez, Mayor of the City of Doral, will hold its first Annual “Best Practices” Conference. The event will take place on Friday, December 2, 2011 at the Intercontinental Hotel in Doral starting at 8:00 a.m.

Key sessions will include a wide variety of topics from Ethics to Media Relations, Sustainability and State issues by a group of experts and professionals from both the public and private sectors with one goal in mind: improve municipal services. Civic leaders will also tackle pensions and municipal financing.

About the MDCLC: The Miami-Dade County League of Cities was established in 1953 for the purpose of uniting the common interests of the municipalities within Miami-Dade County. The League has evolved throughout the years, and continues to work together with the municipalities’ elected officials on important issues that affect the residents and the business community of the respective cities, towns and villages.
